DATE: 7th June 2013

Ardencote Manor Hotel
The Cumsey, Lye Green Road
Claverdon, Warwick, CV35 8LT

Guest speaker: Fiona Joseph; author, publisher and speaker
Beatrice Cadbury: A Heroine For Our Times

The Solihull Chambers Enterprising Women's Lunches are a great way for women in business of all levels to:

- engage with each other and develop relationships
- share ideas and experiences
- raise their own profile and increase their brand recognition

We will encourage our attendees to link with each other to help grow their business contacts and share referrals.

There are four events per year and our guest speakers come from different backgrounds, covering a range of topics which we hope will interest and inspire you.

We are delighted that our Guest Speaker for June will be Fiona Joseph; author, publisher and speaker. Her latest book is 'Beatrice: the Cadbury heiress who gave away her fortune'.

Beatrice Cadbury, rich daughter of the world-famous chocolate empire, was troubled by being a 'have' in a world of 'have-nots'. So in 1920 she decided to 'give back' all the Cadbury shares she had inherited to the Bournville factory workers ... with dramatic consequences.

Join Birmingham author Fiona Joseph to hear about Beatrice's astonishing journey from respectable Quaker girl to bold activist, as well as Fiona's own determination to bring Beatrice Cadbury's hidden life story to a wider audience.
